Warm Up In Your Library

There are many reasons to visit the library this January. A new session of children's storytimes and lapsits begins on January 7th. Lucy the Read Dog will revisit the library on Saturday, January 24th at 10 am. Hope Anderson, Children's Librarian, will discuss another book for the Norwood Young Readers Award on January 20th, The Liberation of Gabriel King.

On January 8th, librarians Margot Sullivan and Beth Goldman will share a variety of book reviews during two Fireside Chats—one at 10 am and another at 7:30 pm. Coffee and refreshments will be served at both chats.

The Musical Sundays Series continues this season with its third musical venue on the 11th of January. The Baystatesmen Barbershop Chorus will blend their voices in rich, vocal harmony in a program of musical selections entitled Winter Wonders.

On January 22, a film, The Colonel George T. Lee Story, will be shown at 7 pm in the Simoni Room. This documentary chronicles the story of Norwood's own World War II hero who set the record for flying 258 missions in the European theater.

On January 28, local author Jeff Belanger will delight the audience with his reflections on writing his latest hit book Weird Massachusetts and the picture book Who's Haunting the White House?: The President's Mansion and the Ghosts Who Live There.

We request that you sign up for adult events by calling the library to reserve a space. Children's programs require registration through the children's department. One exception is the Drop-in Lapsit at 11:30 am on Fridays.
